

The Wind in the Willows – Recorded Live at the London Palladium

It's always great to watch a live theatre production but sadly, at this time, our theatres are closed.

However, one theatre company have given us the chance to stream a Live Recording of their performance of The Wind in the Willows at the London Palladium in 2017. It even stars one of our past students – Rosie Bates! (Playing squirrel, swallow, sassy stoat!)

This is great way to inject some creativity into your day and I encourage all students studying Drama to watch it:
